

HISTORY OF GEELONG GEM & MINERAL CLUB

In early 1967, after a series of Adult Education Classes, which were held in the Geelong Free Library for people interested in the art of Lapidary, under the instructions of local jewellers M. Ross Scott and Mr. John Flowers. An approach was made to Mr. Scott by one of the pupils Mr. Arol Miller asking "What can we do with these stones we have cut"?

Mr. Scott then placed an advertisement in the Geelong Advertiser Newspaper on February 18th. 1967 calling a meeting of all budding Lapidaries, Rockhounds, Collectors, Etc., to a meeting in the Davidson Hall, Gordon Institute of Technology to be held on Tuesday February 21st. Approximately 150 persons attended and it was decided, on the motion of Mr. Bob Warren, seconded by Mr. John O'Dwyer "That a club be formed, for the purpose of furthering the interests of Gem Cutting and related activities in Geelong". A committee was then formed to investigate ways and means of forming the proposed club.

Following meetings of this committee held in the home of Mr. & Mrs. Ross Scott, a public meeting was Held on March 21st. at which it was decided on the motion of Mr. Jack Dulfer, seconded by Mr. Jim Ablett "That the constitution as circulated be accepted as the constitution of the Geelong & District Gem & Mineral Club", nominations were called to form a committee of up to 15 members, the following nominations were received, Mr. Jim Ablett. Mr. Graeme Block. Mr. Eric Bryan. Mrs Lyla Bryan. Mr. Alec Chomley. Mrs. Mabel Dulfer. Mr. Charles Gill. Mr. Mike Higgins. Mr. Phil Jacobs. Mr. Jack McKenzie. Mrs. Jean Poole. Mr. Ross Scott. Mr. Bob Warren, as only 14 nominations were received an election was unnecessary, the Executive elected by this committee elected were.
